

CHRISTIAN SAINTS

IN LATE ANTIQUITY

c. 300 - 750

A Lecture Series
for Great Lent

This lecture series explores the historical worlds of Christian saints from the fourth through the eighth centuries.

Through five case studies, this set of talks examines theology, ethics, sanctity, and Christian life in the Orthodox tradition during Late Antiquity.

EVERY FRIDAY

- 6:00 PM Akathist to the Theotokos
- 7:00 PM Falafel Dinner and Public Lecture

Join us online

SCAN ME

Hosted at St. Basil Antiochian Orthodox Church as part of a fundraising effort for a new fellowship hall. Attendance and meals are free; donations are welcome.

SCHEDULE

LENT 2026

Feb 27th

Kaleb Herman Adney, Ph.D.

An Introduction to the Late Antique Period (4th-8th Centuries)

---

Mar 6th

Fr. Jacob Van Sickle, Ph.D.

The World of St. Basil: Ethics and Theology in the 4th Century

---

Mar 13th

George Sarraf

St. John Chrysostom and the Heart of Great Lent

---

Mar 20th

Anysia Metrakos, Ph.D.

St. Matrona of Perge and Urban Monasticism in 5th-6th Century Constantinople

---

Mar 27th

Kaleb Herman Adney, Ph.D.

St. John Damascene and Orthodox Tradition in the 8th Century

---

Apr 3rd

Fr. Alexis Torrance, DPhil

Monastic Thought in Palestine during the 6th Century: Sts. John, Barsanuphius, and Dorotheos of Gaza

Admission Free and open to all. Donations suggested. All proceeds support the St. Basil Building Fund.

Contact Dr. Kaleb Herman Adney • kazcc@umkc.edu • 310-562-2442